

Alliant Baccalaureate Recipients' Continuation to Graduate School

Alliant reviewed the current activities of graduates from July 1, 2011 to June 30, 2013. Of those, over 40% continued on to graduate or post-baccalaureate education based on information available.

The majority of these graduates continued on to a master's programs in the fields in which they received their bachelor's degrees. For example, if those who were awarded a baccalaureate degree in business administration, chose to continue to graduate school, they were likely to enroll in an MBA program. The chart below indicates the percent of students pursuing additional education at various graduate and post-baccalaureate levels.

Methodology: Information on graduates was obtained using current Alliant academic records, information provided via the Alliant Career Services Office, and the Internet. Date of Information: January 23, 2017
