Jay Haley Scholarship

2013-14

We are pleased to announce the 2013-14 Jay Haley Scholarship amount has been increased to a total of $15,000 dollars for US based students. Consequently the committee will be granting a $5000 dollar scholarship to three separate CSPP students.

We are also pleased to announce that CSPP students (or confirmed applicants who enroll for 2013-14) from all US based campuses in the clinical, CFT, and LPCC programs are now eligible to apply for the Jay Haley scholarship.

The three $5000 US based scholarships will to given to three deserving students based on the following guidelines:

1. Financial Need
2. Strong Commitment to Minority, Family, and Community Work
3. Professional Aspirations
4. Leadership Potential

Dr. Haley’s life work involved a strong commitment to serving the underserved, respectful and appropriate treatment of minorities, and using directives and family relationships as agents of change to help those who are seriously troubled live productive, healthy, and satisfying lives. Dr. Jay Haley is a leading founder of the field of Family Therapy and is the “father” of Brief Strategic Therapy and served as a faculty member at Alliant from 1998 to 2007.

Eligibility:

1. Applicant must be a CSPP student or confirmed applicants attending a CSPP program in a clinical, CFT, or LPCC program in California.
2. Applicant should have at least a 3.5 GPA and be in good academic standing.
3. Those awarded must remain enrolled and in good academic standing for each semester the award is granted.

How can the award be used?
Scholarship funds may be used for education-related expenses, including tuition, books, school supplies, room and board or transportation.

When will the award be issued?
Scholarships will be awarded in September 2013 when proof of enrollment has been submitted. Half of the scholarship ($2500) will be dispersed in September 2013, and the remaining will be dispersed January 2014. All applicants will be notified of the results in writing via mail by September 6, 2013.

Program Limits:
Once submitted the application becomes the property of Alliant International University. Alliant International University is not responsible for applications lost, misplaced, or delayed through the mail.
